

Q1

- How to connect to localhost (helpful when testing PHP)
- Chapter 1.1.3
- 3 points
- You get full credit for selecting B) and C).
- Minus a point for every wrong answer selected. Just like class, will get a minimum of 1 point for showing up to class.

Q2

- Creating valid html and recognizing valid html.
- Chapter 2.3.2
- 2 points
- Correct answer is false.
- You get full credit for selecting false. Otherwise, you get 1 point for showing up to class.

Q3

- Id Selectors and Class selectors
- Chapters 3.3.2 & 3.3.3
- 3 points
- You get full credit for selecting A) and B).
- You get 1 point for every correct answer and minus 1 point for every wrong answer. You will get a minimum of one point for showing up to class.

Q4

- Visibility property
- Chapter 4.4.4
- 2 points
- You get full credit for putting "display, value", without the quotes.
- Ignore spacing between words and commas. Ignore casing completely. There must be a comma separating property and value to get credit. Have a javascript validator that will make sure that there is a comma, if there isn't one then they cannot click submit. Will get 1 point for showing up to class.

Q5

- Global vs local variables and arithmetic
- Chapter 5.2.3 & 5.2.4
- 2 points
- Answer is D)
- You get full credit for answer D). Otherwise 1 point for showing up to class.

Q6

- Select, dropdowns, and value
- Chapter 6.2.6 & 6.2.4
- 2 points

- You get full credit for entering 3.
- Ignore any extra spacing. No extra characters, such as commas, double quotes, single quotes, etc., are accepted. Will get 1 point for showing up to class.

Q7

- Proper use of the <input>
- Chapter 7.2.4
- 2 points
- Correct answer is false.
- You get full credit for answering false, otherwise you get 1 point for showing up to class.